U.S. Patent No. 6,924,252, Issued August 2, 2005

Title: WEED CONTROL

Appl. Ser. No. 09/890,384, filed February 15, 2002

Inventor: Roberts et al.

Assignee: Aventis Agriculture Limited

Dear Sir or Madam:

The issue fee was apparently paid on the above-identified patent application on January 27, 2005. However, we neither instructed the United States Patent Office to charge our deposit account for this fee nor did we submit a check in payment of the issue fee from our firm. In addition, we have inquired with our client and have been informed that the issue fee payment did not originate from that source, either.

We have retrieved a copy of the issue fee payment paper from the PAIR page of the United States Patent and Trademark Office website. It appears that the assignee information and the attorney information were somehow inserted onto the form without the benefit of a typewriter or computer insertion. In addition, the form does not appear to have been signed by either an attorney or an agent and the certificate of mailing is also not signed by anyone. At the bottom of the sheet, information has been inserted that appears to indicate the payment was charged to Deposit Account 020387. However, this is not the deposit account assigned to our firm (either our D.C. or our Delaware offices).

We do not understand how this fee has been paid since our client had previously instructed us to not pay the issue fee and to allow this application to go abandoned.

Sincerely, Barbar & Mille

Barbara J. Miller
